

MENTAL HEALTH is quickly being recognized as a root cause of many social problems facing our communities today.

The Texoma Behavioral Health Leadership Team has identified three focus areas to address at this time:

1

Stigma

Removing the image of what a person looks like experiencing behavioral & mental health issues through programs such as OKAY TO SAY.

2

Access to Care

Identifying and strengthening the right programs along with having the professional staff needed to provide the services for those reaching out.

3

Jail Diversion

Jail diversion programs are proving effective at improving efficiency, effectiveness and ultimately the quality of justice for everyone.

THESE FOCUS AREAS ARE LARGE AND VERY COMPLEX WITH MANY MOVING PARTS; NO SINGLE ENTITY CAN TACKLE THE ISSUE ALONE.

It will take government, for-profit, and non-profit organizations working together in a unified effort if we want to see change.

Thank you for supporting our efforts with an annual membership.
